All The Young Men-Ruth Coker Burks 2020-12-01 In 1986, 26-year old Ruth visits a friend at the hospital when she notices that the door to one of the hospital rooms is painted red. She witnesses nurses drawing straws to see who would tend to the patient inside, all of them reluctant to enter the room. Out of impulse, Ruth herself enters the quarantined space and immediately begins to care for the young man who cries for his mother in the last moments of his life. Before she can even process what she's done, word spreads in the community that Ruth is the only person willing to help these young men afflicted by AIDS, and is called upon to nurse them. As she forges deep friendships with the men she helps, she works tirelessly to find them housing and jobs, even searching for funeral homes willing to take their bodies - often in the middle of the night. She cooks meals for tens of people out of discarded food found in the dumpsters behind supermarkets, stores rare medications for her most urgent patients, teaches sex-ed to drag queens after hours at secret bars, and becomes a beacon of hope to an otherwise spurned group of ailing gay men on the fringes of a deeply conservative state. Throughout the years, Ruth defies local pastors and nurses to help the men she cares for: Paul and Billy, Angel, Chip, Todd and Luke. Emboldened by the weight of their collective pain, she fervently advocates for their safety and visibility, ultimately advising Governor Bill

Clinton on the national HIV-AIDS crisis. This deeply moving and elegiac memoir honors the extraordinary life of Ruth Coker Burks and the beloved men who fought valiantly for their lives with AIDS during a most hostile and misinformed time in America.

Summer Cannibals-Melanie Hobson 2018-09-11 Sisterly bonds, dark desires, and terrible secrets converge in this "tale of scorching family dysfunction that ranges among the gothic, domestic, and carnal" (Publishers Weekly). Summoned to their magnificent family home on the shores of Lake Ontario—a paradisiacal mansion perched on an escarpment above the city—three adult sisters come together in what seems like an act of family solidarity. Pregnant and unwell, the youngest has left her husband and four young children in New Zealand and returned home to heal. But while their home features immaculate gardens the likes of which few could imagine possessing, it is also a place of trauma and vengeance, where family togetherness leads to feasting on each other's sexual appetites and weaknesses. Each daughter has her own particular taste, and overlaying everything is their parents, with unquenchable cravings of their own. As the affluent family endures six intense days in one another's company, old fissures reappear. When long-buried truths finally come to light, the sisters and their parents must face the unthinkable consequences of their actions. Noah & Reagan: Naughty's Nice [Silver's Studs 6]-Lynn Stark 2015-12-17 [Siren Classic ManLove: Erotic Alternative Romance, M/M, HEA] There was a time when Noah believed his life had no meaning, no value. His family tossed him away because he was gay. Homeless, feeling lost, he used drugs as an escape. After being arrested and hitting rock bottom, Noah was given a chance to start over in a new place. Then he discovered love and a purpose to fulfill his life. Reagan knew Noah was the man for him as soon as he saw him peeking out of a store's office, after the place had been robbed. He fell in love as soon as he looked into those suspicious, gray-green eyes, an emotion he had felt only once before. Now he had found new love in a new place, giving him true hope for the first time in years. Noah came with a few issues, but Reagan believed it was nothing they couldn't handle, as long as they did it together.  A Siren Erotic Romance spanking, bondage, HEA] Bambi Taylor knows the men she wants as her husbands. She's been thinking about Slade Jessop for years, since she was in pigtails and braces. Older than Bambi is, Slade had rightfully given her potential wife. When he does, he will be hers. Wanting a menage relationship, Bambi has chosen womanizer Eli James as their third. She trusts he'll get over that behavior once he's committed to her. But he has a real problem with her serving drinks to customers in a sex club while wearing nothing more than a thong. It's something he'll need to accept if they're going to be together. Though Bambi sets the bait, luring both men in, the real problem she will have trouble solving, before forming a relationship with them, is that Slade and Eli hate each other quite passionately.  A Siren Erotic Romance

Michigan Law Review- 1997

The New Biographical Dictionary of Film-David Thomson 2014-05-06 For almost thirty years, David Thomson's Biographical Dictionary of Film has been not merely “the finest reference book ever written about movies” (Graham Fuller, Interview), not merely the “desert island book” of art critic David Sylvester, not merely “a great, crazy masterpiece” (Geoff Dyer, The Guardian), but also “fiendishly seductive” (Greil Marcus, Rolling Stone). This new edition updates the older entries and adds 30 new ones: Darren Aronofsky, Emmanuelle Beart, Jerry Bruckheimer, Larry Clark, Jennifer Connelly, Chris Cooper, Sofia Coppola, Alfonso Cuarón, Richard Curtis, Sir Richard Eyre, Sir Michael Gambon, Christopher Guest, Alejandro González Inárritu, Spike Jonze, Wong Kar-Wai, Laura Linney, Tobey Maguire, Michael Moore, Samantha Morton, Mike Myers, Christopher Nolan, Dennis Price, Adam Sandler, Kevin Smith, Kiefer Sutherland, Charlize Theron, Larry Wachowski and Andy Wachowski, Lew Wasserman, Naomi Watts, and Ray Winstone. In all, the book includes more than 1300 entries, some of them just a pungent paragraph, some of them several thousand words long. In addition to the new “musts,” Thomson has added key figures from film history-lively anatomies of Graham Greene, Eddie Cantor, Pauline Kael, Abbott and Costello, Noël Coward, Hoagy Carmichael, Dorothy Gish, Rin Tin Tin, and more. Here is a great, rare book, one that encompasses the chaos of art, entertainment, money, vulgarity, and nonsense that we call the movies. Personal, opinionated, funny, daring, provocative, and passionate, it is the one book that every filmmaker and film buff must own. Time Out named it one of the ten best books of the 1990s. Gavin Lambert recognized it as “a work of imagination in its own right.” Now better than ever—a masterwork by the man playwright David Hare called “the most stimulating and thoughtful film critic now writing.”
