Forsaken Soul (EasyRead Comfort Edition)- Priscilla Royal 2009-10-06 The summer of 1273 is peaceful for most of England, but Prioress Eleanor of Tyndal Priory is troubled. Her friend, Crowner Ralf, is newly widowed with a baby daughter. Her new anchoress is terrifying her servants and welcoming visitors to her window at night. And then Martin the Cooper is poisoned at the local inn. Could the murderer be his usual whore, about to be tossed aside for another woman? Or is it the innkeeper's niece who has secret reasons for fearing him? Perhaps the blacksmith did it, a man whose temper might have exploded when he was mocked once too often? Martin certainly had a wealth of enemies. The killer could be any of them. Eleanor offers what help she can to the investigation, as does Sister Anne, a former apothecary. Yet her own problems multiply and Eleanor has good reason to regret her kindness: one of the nocturnal visitors to the anchoress' window has been Brother Thomas, a man the prioress secretly loves. Now his loyalty to her as head of Tyndal Priory is suspect. Bodies multiply. Suspects disappear. No one likes the direction the evidence points, but God's justice must be rendered - even for the most forsaken soul. Forsaken Fellowship-Amanda Maree Wilson Hagerman 2012-04 Amanda's journey has been filled with good times and bad, but is not without purpose. In her own words, she says, "Sometimes we feel we are walking down a meaningless pathway to nowhere, but in all truth that is just the version of our life's story Satan wants us to see. Satan doesn't want us to understand that every obstacle presented is able to be overcome; if we could just reach beyond the insecurities, and the atmosphere of fear, doubt, and negativity to embrace God's infinite truth that was graphed into our lives before we were conceived." "I know the thoughts that I think toward you, said the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end." But Satan's purpose is to divert that good God-given purpose that God intended for our lives toward that of utter destruction. God knows the thoughts that he thinks toward us, but do we? Do we realize it isn't God's will that anyone perish but that all come to repentance? Yet, God's not going to overrun our will, so God says, "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I WILL give you rest." Amanda has come to realize that being a Christian is a bed of roses, because even something as fragile as a rose has the ability to inflict pain. Amanda's journey hasn't been one of ease, but it has all brought her closer to one thing, love.

The Forsaken Garden-Nancy Ryley 1998 When documentary filmmaker Nancy Ryley first became ill, few people had heard of "environmental illness." Her symptoms---fatigue, depression, hypersensitivity to foods and chemicals---puzzled doctors and resisted treatment. Unable to work, Nancy, with her husband, moved from Toronto to rural west Canada, where a lifestyle free of urban pollutants helped her slowly to rebuild her health. Nancy's struggle is also the spiritual struggle of the planet. To explore the connections between the state of our bodies and souls and the condition of the earth, she interviewed four leading thinkers, each with a unique perspective on spiritual health: Laurens van der Post, African explorer and journalist; Marion Woodman, psychologist and best-selling author; Ross Woodman, expert on Blake and the Romantic poets; Thomas Berry, theologian and cultural historian. These thought-provoking conversations, woven with Nancy's own search for answers, shine beacons of hope for personal and planetary healing.

Forsaken-Kristen Day 2014-09-22 Once you've been touched by darkness, it never leaves you... Abandoned by her parents as an infant; seventeen year old Hannah spent her childhood wading through countless foster families until being adopted by the Whitmans three years ago.

Unfortunately, Atlanta's high society wasn't quite ready for Hannah...or the strange events that plague her. Chilling visions of murder, unexplained hallucinations, and a dark, mysterious guy who haunts her nightmares all culminate to set in motion a journey of self-discovery that will challenge everything she's ever believed; not to mention her sanity. Sent to live at The House of Lorelei on Bald Head Island, NC for 'kids like her', Hannah quickly realizes things are not what they seem. Her fellow 'disturbed' teens are actually the descendants of mythical Sea Gods and Goddesses. And so is she. But when Finn, the ghost from her dreams, appears in the flesh; her nightmares become reality and her dark visions begin coming true. Inexplicably drawn to him, she can't deny the dangerous hold he has on her heart. The deadly secrets he harbors will ultimately test her courage and push the boundaries of her love. She must decide if she is ready to embrace the ancient legend she is prophesized to be a part of. The fate of all the descendants will forever depend upon it.

Cast Down But Not Forsaken-Evangelist Sarann Cato "Spiritual warfare." There are hundreds of books written on this subject. Books that reveal all the correct "warfare" scriptures and the Theologies that men teach trying to explain those scriptures. However, unless you have physically and mentally experienced battle and lived to tell of it, you will never really understand the deception of our Enemy Satan. To say, "There is a Devil." Is a truth that all of us can affirm. Then again, to give testimony that, "I have looked into the eyes of Satan, felt his hands around my throat and was delivered as Daniel from the mouth of the Lions," Takes on a very different view of the subject.
