A Time to Love and a Time to Die-Erich Maria Remarque 2014-03-04 From the quintessential author of wartime Germany, A Time to Love and a Time to Die echoes the harrowing insights of his masterpiece All Quiet on the Western Front. After two years at the Russian front, Ernst Graeber finally receives three weeks’ leave. But since leaves have been canceled before, he decides not to write his parents, fearing he would just raise their hopes. Then, when Graeber arrives home, he finds his house bombed to ruin and his parents nowhere in sight. Nobody knows if they are dead or alive. As his leave draws to a close, Graeber reaches out to Elisabeth, a childhood friend. Like him, she is imprisoned in a world she did not create. But in a time of war, love seems a world away. And sometimes, temporary comfort can lead to something unexpected and redeeming. “The world has a great writer in Erich Maria Remarque. He is a craftsman of unquestionably first rank, a man who can bend language to his will. Whether he writes of men or of inanimate nature, his touch is sensitive, firm, and sure.”—The New York Times Book Review

A Time To Love-Barbara Cameron 2010-09-01 War correspondent Jennie King thinks she’s just a temporary guest in her grandmother’s Amish community while she recuperates from the devastating injuries sustained in a car bomb attack that changed her world. But when she meets Matthew Bontrager, the man she had a crush on as a teenager, she wonders if God has a new plan for her. Jennie has emotional and physical scars and though she feels she has come home to this man and this place, she’s not sure she can bridge the difference between their worlds. A Time To Love-Gail Symmonds 2009-05-29 Gifted with a mysterious antique necklace, Joanne Dunstan is magically thrust back in time, launching her on an incredible journey. Finding herself in the Scottish Highlands of 1626, she faces challenges and horrors never imagined. She also discovers friendship, honour, and love with an arrogant Scottish Laird. Laird Connor MacKay suffers no fools. A warrior with a bitter past, he keeps his enemies, and demons, at bay. Joanne’s mysterious arrival and her outspoken manner” will test and anguish Connor in ways he never dreamed. Lives will be changed forever when violence and betrayal threaten their love and the peaceful clan existence. Love is the only thing worth fighting for”but will it be enough to hold Joanne in the past A Time to Love-Lillie Johnson 2013-02 Once in a lifetime, the most beautiful love story you will ever know is the one you’re living. From love discovered as teens, to love rekindled as matured adults with grown children, this book takes you on the journey of two people who overcame extraordinary challenges, including a thirty-year separation, intense emotionally-protective barriers, and living over nine hundred miles apart, to ultimately claim an everlasting love. Now married over five years, read not only about the phenomenon of the love that brought them back together, but also of the faith, gratitude, and day to day practices that hold them together. Told in a two-person narratva filled with tender, heartwarming moments, humor, and practical wisdom, their story will make you smile, cry, and realize the beauty and power of love between two people and the mystery some call destiny. It will encourage you to revere God’s ability to “make all things new” in His own time. More than anything, it will inspire you to believe in miracles, particularly the miracle of love.

A Time to Love-BILLIE CANTRELL McNABB MAGUIRE 2011-11-01 It was an age of innocence and sometimes ignorance. I want to memorialize what a wonderful era it was in which to be a child and to grow old. It began as a chronological biography, but that was not the way life is lived. Stuff happens and rehappens, appears and disappears, changes and remains the same. Thus my memories and emotions became a haphazard collection of short sketches and stories. Early on the decision was made to mainly include the good “stuff.” We begin this saga with my grandmother Jenny’s story, the matriarch of the clan. “Jenny Cantrell was born October 29, 1858, in a farmhouse near Red Sulphur Springs. She is one-half of a set of twin daughters born to James and Elizabeth Ratliff. Mrs. Cantrell grew up on a farm in Mercer County near Littlesburg. One year a young Charlestonian, James M. Cantrell came to Mercer County “to take an interest in the mines.” They fell in love and at 16 years of age, Jenny Ratliff became his bride.”

A Time to Love-Beryl Kingston 2012-10-16 First published in 1988, A Time to Love is a story of two lives meeting. Ellen Murphy was born to a world of rotting slums and starving children. Determined to escape from poverty and her drunken Irish father, she takes a job as a shop girl on Shoreditch High Street. David Cheifitz is the only son of devout Jewish parents, David has grown up with his future mapped out. But he is an artist and a rebel. When he falls in love with Ellen Murphy, he turns his back on the old ways. But as time passes, life starts to get in the way: religious differences, rejection by David’s parents and domestic strife throw up barriers between the newlyweds. It is only when David is drawn into the Great War do they realise how precious their marriage is and by then it may be too late.

A Time To Love-Robert Greenberger 2012-09-11 A century ago the long-running conflict between two alien civilizations ended when both of them colonised the same distant planet, becoming instead a shining example of inter-species cooperation and coexistence. Now an investigation headed by Kyle Riker -- estranged father of Commander William Riker -- has revealed how fragile their hard-won paradise is. Within a few generations, a virus indigenous to their colony planet of Delta Sigma IV will wipe out all its inhabitants. Faced with this threat the delicate shell of harmony starts to crumble... Jean-Luc Picard and his crew, still reeling from the events which have tarnished the career of one of Starfleet’s most decorated captains, must come to the aid of a world which once knew only peace, but now faces violence and chaos. Riker, meantime, must face the fact that his own father may be responsible for the anarchy into which Delta Sigma IV is descending. Love in the Time of Cholera (Illustrated Edition)-Gabriel García Márquez 2020-10-27 Set on the Caribbean coast of South America, this love story brings together Fermina Daza, her distinguished husband, and a man who has secretly loved her for more than fifty years.

A Time To Hate-Robert Greenberger 2012-09-11 The long-running blood feud between two alien peoples came to a sudden close a century ago when both races colonised the planet Sigma IV. But their unaccustomed harmony turns out to be caused by a natural gas released by their new home planet -- an effect that scientists now determine will kill them over time. A treatment intended to nullify the long-term damage and danger has catastrophic results, triggering worldwide carnage as long suppressed aggression and rage are suddenly released. In the midst of this maelstrom of hatred and violence is the USS Enterprise-E, on a mission which is going from bad to worse. Captain Jean-Luc Picard -- a man still waging his own personal battle for redemption in the eyes of his commanding officers -- must somehow find a way to resolve the disaster and save the lives of his crew.

A Star Trek: The Next Generation: Time #4: A Time to Love-Robert Greenberger 2004-06-01 On the cusp of their epic battle with Shinzon, many of Captain Jean-Luc Picard’s long-time crew were heading for new assignments and new challenges. Among the changes were William Riker’s promotion to captain and his new command, Riker’s marriage to Counselor Deanna Troi, and Dr. Beverly Crusher’s new career at Starfleet Medical. But the story of what set them on a path away from the Starship Enterprise™ has never been told. UNTIL NOW. One hundred years ago, the recurring conflicts between the Bader and the Dorset ended mysteriously when both races colonized the distant planet Delta Sigma IV -- a world located far from the destructive wars of their people -- and quickly became the Federation’s perfect example of interspecies cooperation. But there are now rumblings of trouble in paradise, as an investigation led by Kyle Riker -- Commander William Riker’s estranged father -- into this harmonious society has discovered a shocking, immutable truth: over the next few generations, the reaction to a native gas will spell the extinction of Delta Sigma IV’s inhabitants. Captain Picard and his crew, still recovering from the tragic events that have tarnished the career of one of the Federation’s most decorated captains, must come to the aid of a world that once knew only peace, but now faces emerging violence and chaos...and Commander Riker must confront the reality that his own father may be held responsible for Delta Sigma IV’s almost certain downfall!

A Time to Love-Al Lacy 1998 Broken-hearted after being left at the altar, Linda Forest takes solace in corresponding with a gentlemanly Christian banker who has advertised for a mail-order bride, however surprise turns to suspicion when his demeanor is not in keeping with his letters.

Time Enough for Love-Robert A. Heinlein 1987-08-15 The capstone and crowning achievement of the Future History series, from the New York Times bestselling Grand Master of Science Fiction... Time Enough for Love follows Lazarus Long through a vast and magnificent timescape of centuries and worlds. Heinlein’s longest and most ambitious work, it is the story of a man so in love with Life that he refused to stop living it; and so in love with Time that he became his own ancestor.

The Angels Have a Message for You-Sue Stinson 2005 The Angels take you on a journey of awakening and love. They wish you to know yourself as being the most worthy of love in the entire world. Overwhelmed-Brigid Schulte 2014-03-13 In her attempts to juggle work and family life, Brigid Schulte has baked cakes until 2 a.m., frantically (but surreptitiously) sent important emails during school trips and then worked long into the night after her children were in bed. Realising she had become someone who constantly burst in late, trailing shoes and schoolbooks and biscuit crumbs, she began to question, like so many of us, whether it is possible to be anything you want to be, have a family and still have time to breathe. So when Schulte met an eminent sociologist who studies time and he told her she enjoyed thirty hours of leisure each week, she thought her head was going to pop off. What followed was a trip down the rabbit hole of busy-ness, a journey to discover why so many of us “nd it near-impossible to press the ‘pause’ button on life and what got us here in the 7rst place. Overwhelmed maps the individual, historical, biological and societal stresses that have ripped working mothers’ and fathers’ leisure to shreds, and asks how it might be possible for us to put the pieces back together. Seeking insights, answers and inspiration, Schulte explores everything from the wiring of the brain and why workplaces are becoming increasingly demanding, to worldwide differences in family policy, how cultural norms shape our experiences at work, our unequal division of labour at home and why it’s so hard for everyone - but women especially - to feel they deserve an elusive moment of peace.

A Wrong Time to Love-Doris N. Johnson 2019-08-13

A Time to Love-Helen Steiner Rice 2000-10-05 Helen Steiner Rice’s poems were written to commemorate events. She often sent specially composed poems - congratulations to a niece who was getting married, expressions of joy to a co-worker who just had a child, a letter offering solace to a grieving friend.We have gathered her poems and letters marking the rhythms of life under lines from Ecclesiastes, adding as seasoning passages from Scripture and traditional prayers.

A Time to Love-Betty McCormack 1960 Forgiveness-Helen Whitney 2011-03-02 This compelling range of stories explores why the process and discussion of forgiveness seems to dominate our culture. Whitney writes of the struggle of 1960s radicals to cope with the consequences of violent acts of protest, and more.

A Time to Love, A Time to Die-Leopold zu Lowenstein 2018 A Time to Love, A Time to Die was originally published in 1971, and became a bestseller on both sides of the Atlantic. It has since gone unduly forgotten. Now, this tale of life, death, love and heartache is republished, and with a foreword by Leopold Loewenstein’s daughter-in-law, Princess Josephine Loewenstein.

A Time to Love-Barbara Delinsky 2009-11-10 New York Times bestselling author Barbara Delinsky demonstrates her incomparable talents for capturing the deepest desires of the human heart in this breathtaking story, first published in 1982, of misunderstanding, fulfillment, and love.It is the ultimate in luxury and privacy -- a villa nestled amid brilliant sunlight and gently waving palm trees on a secluded Caribbean beach. There Arielle Pasteur hopes to find the solitude she desperately craves.Instead she ends up sharing her sensuous surroundings with a man who sparks memories of a painful past she thought she’d put behind her. Devastatingly handsome fashion photographer Chris Howe seems like an overbearing, egotistical chauvinist. Yet behind the glittering celebrity faYade lurks a tenderness that begins to soften Arielle’s protective shell. But before she can trust him with her fragile heart, she must learn to trust herself.

To Love and Let Go-Rachel Brathen 2019-09-17 “Rachel beautifully illustrates that loving fiercely and grieving deeply are often two halves of the same whole. Her story will break you down and lift you up.” —Glennon Doyle, author of the #1 New York Times bestseller Love Warrior and founder of Together Rising While on her way to teach a yoga retreat in March 2014, Rachel Brathen collapses at an airport, brought to her knees by excruciating stomach pains. She is rushed to the hospital on the tiny island of Bonaire, and hours later forced to undergo surgery. When she wakes up from anesthesia, her boyfriend is weeping at her bedside. While Rachel was struck down with seemingly mysterious pain, her best friend, Andrea, sustained fatal injuries as a result of a car accident. Rachel and Andrea had a magical friendship. Though they looked nothing alike—one girl tall, blond, and Swedish, the other short, brunette, and Colombian—everyone called them gemelas: twins. Over the three years following Andrea’s death, at what might appear from the outside to be the happiest time—with her engagement to the man she loves and a blossoming career that takes her all over the world—Rachel faces a series of trials that have the potential to define her life. Unresolved grief and trauma from her childhood make the weight of her sadness unbearable. At each turn, she is confronted again and again with a choice: Will she lose it all, succumb to grief, and grasp for control that’s beyond her reach? Or can she move through the loss and let go? When Rachel and her husband conceive a child, pregnancy becomes a time to heal and an opportunity to be reborn herself. As she recounts this transformative period, Rachel shares her hard-won wisdom about life and death, love and fear, what it means to be a mother and a daughter, and how to become someone who walks through the fire of adversity with the never-ending practice of loving hard and letting go.

Pondering the Reflections of Life and the Reflections of Love-Patricia Louise 2011-07-29 “This book is a voice of hope in an unhealed world. It is a candid, genuine guide for those who took, as Robert Frost wrote, ‘The Road Less Traveled.’” —Alfred Lackey PhD, Holistic Counseling Service “Patricia Wilson has a ninety-chord love song to fuel the required emotional nutrients that we need. Surely within her book lies a distinctive Rhema for all of us. —Connie Lackey, founder of the Ladies’ Tea Ministry “As I read Patricia’s book, it enlightened me as to what God would intend us to do. ‘The Lord said, Write the vision and make it plain upon tablets that he may run that readeth it.’ (Hab 2:2)” —Dick Halloran, Director, Life Abundant Bible College and Healing Rooms. “In reading Patricia’s book I received a blessing in that she was able to express herself with words that God would give her in her walk of faith with Him—even through the tragedy of her loss, knowing how God would sustain her and carry her to the next level. I found that her love for the Lord was expressed in each word I read. I know that anyone reading this book will come to know that there are treasures that only God can give. I believe from my heart that God has great and mighty things ahead for her.” —JoAnn Halloran, director of Life Abundant Ministry Healing Rooms. “I have known Pat many years as a Christian sister, and she lives by ‘Be doers of the Word and not hearers only.’ James 1:22 (NKJV) I highly recommend this book to all as an inspirational devotion!” —Vickie Linnins, Teacher “My friend, the young-hearted, godly enthusiast! Pat Wilson, takes you face-to-face with life and love by rendering her ideas of love to the loveless and strength to the weak. She is inserting the keys to these mysteries as she sees fit, to help fill emptiness and mend brokenness. This book should be taken with you and used as positive energy for any day of your life as our ‘Earth Angel’ Pat intended it. —Donna V. Foster, broker, realtor, and co-owner of Coldwell Banker Foster Real Estate, Inc

A Time To Love And A Time To Hate-Charmae Smith 2020-11-20 This book is a collection of poems, spoken word and prayers. This collection was inspired by a desire to express love for a person I have loved for many years then it turned into so much more a book of freedom. This book will set many souls free by showing that freedom of speech begins with freeing oneself from the need to be validated by people. When God says yes its yes and no man or other force can stop what God has spoken from coming to pass. I pray that you enjoy this book of words that have the power to pierce and put back together. Please laugh, cry and choose this day to use your freedom of speech against the kingdom of satan.

MEDITATIONS ON LIFE AND LIVING...BORN OUT OF LOVE FOR GOD-Elois Wilform-Malcolm 2014-01-16 Meditations on Life and Living...Born Out of Love for God are basic but simple testimonials in story format with Scripture as the catalyst and theme for their birth. How many times have you sat alone somewhere just reflecting on the simplicity of life...how blessed you are, from where you came compared to where you are now. Author, Elois Wilform-Malcolm, brings these everyday things to life. It will seem as though you are right there by her side, witnessing what she does in her own mind, seeing, feeling, understanding her point of view as she correlates biblical Scriptures into her reflections and how your understanding of Scripture can be a driving force for you own life. Meditations on Life and Living...Born Out of Love for God will allow you to relive your past, reflect on the glory of your present and marvel at your future when you realize the joy, happiness, contentment and peace of mind you attain through a life with God. You will see where you were before salvation, understand who you are in your salvation and strive to be even better through salvation. You will see how Scriptures are being brought to “light” through everyday life situations. Wait till you read catchy titles such as: Throw Down Your Rocks, The Fragrance of Christ, or Wake UP Everybody. You will find excitement in the directions each testimonial meditation will take you. Reading these meditation will bring about purpose for studying the Bible, which is not to know God. The Bible is not a book of rules but a book of principles which are clearly and simply brought out through these meditations. We get to know God through His Word, His spirit, our experiences and through prayer. May you be blessed!!

Learning to Love Yourself-Sharon Wegscheider-Cruse 2012-05-01 We all come into this world full of promise and possibility. For some, when born into a healthy and highly functional family, the journey is quite easy, with guideposts and directions given freely. However, that is a very small population of people. Most of us were born into families that were in their own way struggling for independence, accomplishment, safety or security. For the millions of people who grew up in painful families, whether by absent parents, abusive parents, or those who were ill-equipped, noted therapist Sharon Wegscheider-Cruse shows that they do not have to follow a family tradition of compulsion or addiction. In the revised edition of the classic Learning to Love Yourself, Wegscheider-Cruse explains that it is possible to create our own self-worth at any time in our lives, even as adults. She guides readers on a journey to greater self-worth, explaining how to eliminate toxic self-defeating messages, how to choose healthier, new perspectives, and how to reinvent yourself each day open to a world of possibilities.

A Love Out of Time-Maired Walpole 2008-11 Soul-mates, twin flames, “split-aparts”; philosophers, poets, and priests have pondered their existence and their nature. Such a love can transcend death, stand the test of time, and make all things possible. Some know the truth, while others hope and dream.

A Time to Heal from the Soil-Hattie Foster Soil 2009-01-21 I have been writing poems for the past seven years. After writing my first poem, I felt that I had created a masterpiece but realizing that I was enjoying the energy that flowed from me. I also felt that this is something I can actually do. After reading my first poem, I fell in love with the results and even got energetic about writing more. I can create beautiful words from a single thought and find that writing poetry came naturally for me so I decided to write about my family. I have done extensive researched and found great-great-great grandparents who were born as Africans and found themselves as properties in America in the late 1700s. They were kidnapped from their homes in Africa where life was easy and very promising, and captured by other Africans for money and sold to Americans slave traders. Before they were kidnapped, they had heard of people being sold into slavery to Americans and vowed to keep their guards up. One day, they were kidnapped and transported to America in the belly of a slave ship. They feared this unknown country, America, in which they will soon live. The conditions on the ship were horrendous, many victims of slavery committed suicide by jumping overboard as their mental state reflected their physical conditions. They had very little to eat and were kept chained because of the slave traders fear the slaves could cause injury to themselves or to others, thus hindering themselves to depreciate in value. Once arriving in America, they were immediately put on the slave blocks for all to view as these new slaves were auctioned to the highest bidder. They did not understand the new language and were unable to practice their own cultures and lifestyles. They were forced to live by the rules or the majority culture that benefited from free labor from the backs of my ancestors. They worked in fields, gathering cotton, beans, soybean and other miscellaneous items to get ready for selling or bartering at the nearby markets. Even among slaves, there was a certain social structure when it came to colors. There was a discriminated between lighter (mulattoes) and darker skinned Africans. The lighter skinned slaves worked inside the plantation (the big house) performing duties as cooks, caregivers, housekeepers and whatever the owners desired. Whereas, the darker skin slaves were forced to work in direct inclement weather, sometimes from zero to over 100 degrees. Most of the tasks they performed were field workers, animal trainers, carpenters, architects and land developers. Regardless of where they worked, the slaves were treated worse than the family pets. The owners of the slaves were often called master, boss, Mr. or Miss. This etiquette produced specific ways in which the plantation was operated. If things were not done properly, the owners would punish the slaves as if they were caged animals, this would be severe beatings or even kill them. While decades and centuries passed, it was known that the education system was not designed for Africans and the new dark Americans. Up until the 19th century, the slaves relied solely on self-education for their own intuitions and ideas. They had many remedies for medicine. Their menu consisted of eating parts of the swine that was considered spoils to the owners. In the 1800s, a small fraction of African Americans learned to read and write, it was considered a crime if they were taught these skills. Most slaves pretended to be dumb to protect themselves and their families. Now, I love reading those short stories and eloquent words about their lives and situations. I also enjoyed the writings of many African American authors of the 1930 and the 1940s, especially those who wrote about slavery, something I can relate to them, my ancestors. The broken English and dialog is especially dear to me because this language I have heard all of my life. Writers such as; W.E.B. Dubose, Arma Bontemps, Paul Lawrence Dunbar and La
