Layout Index-Jim Krause 2001-04-16 Idea Index kick-started a revolution in graphic design books, unique in size, feel—and most important—wealth of ideas. Layout Index is the next step, a compendium of layout idea-generators that will help designers explore multiple possibilities for visual treatments each time they turn the page. The visual and textual suggestions are divided into eight major areas, including newsletters, flyers, posters, brochures, advertising, stationery, page layout, and Web pages.

Lawyer for the Dog-Lee Robinson 2015-07-07 One of the sharpest attorneys in Charleston, S.C., Sally Baynard isn't your typical southern belle. She's certainly not what her mother hoped she'd grow up to be, especially since she divorced her husband, Family Court Judge Joe Baynard, and his historic family with their historic wealth and historic houses. Maybe Sally was never going to be a proper society lady, but her success as a public defender and family lawyer have been enough for her. She's represented murderers, burglars, drug dealers and lately has taken on some of the thorniest divorces, all cases closed with her Sally Bright Baynard wit, charm and brains. Or have they? One case she's never successfully closed is her marriage. And when Judge Joe assigns her to one of his divorce cases by appointing her as the Lawyer for the Dog -- Sherman, a miniature schnauzer-- she's forced into close quarters with him again. Juggling the needs of the dog, the angry owners, her amorous but uncommunicative ex-husband, her aging, Alzheimer's-ridden mother, and the expectations of the court is more than Sally could have imagined. And as rascally Sherman digs his way into Sally's heart, he brings along his charming vet Tony, a man who makes Sally question her views on love and marriage.

Lawless In Leather-Melanie Scott 2015-05-05 SHE'S GOOD AT HER GAME. Raina Easton never dreamed she'd end up playing ring master to a bunch of baseball cheerleaders. But when the New York Saints offers her a job to coach its new squad—the Fallen Angels—Raina can't refuse. As the owner of a burlesque club, she can certainly show the girls more than a few good moves. But as for her new boss? That is, as they say, a whole 'nother story. . . . AND HE'S GOT IT BAD. Army veteran, biker, and all-around tough guy, Malachi Coulter isn't your typical sports-team owner. For one thing, he doesn't think cheerleaders belong on the baseball field. Another: he can't seem to separate business and pleasure when he meets his somewhat scandalous new employee. Seems the major-league bad boy has met his match in the gorgeous, feisty Raina. All's fair in love and baseball...could it be that, after all this time, Malachi is playing to win?

Clean Break-Karen Stewart 2014-12-16 "When it comes to divorce, there's the old way - and there's a better way. I know because I learned the hard way." Karen Stewart, CEO and Founder Fairway Divorce Solutions Divorce is costly. It costs money - masses of your money. It costs time - hours spent in meetings, completing paperwork and filing affidavits. It costs heartache as battle lines are drawn and loved ones, especially children, suffer emotional pain. Karen's and thousands of other's harrowing stories are an unqualified testament to these truths. Her experience both personally and professionally led her to believe that there needs to be a better way to end a marriage. Karen's ideas and vision lead to the creation of Fairway Divorce, this book and a passion for advocating through media - for changing the way divorce happens. In this book Karen provides practical tools, inspiration and a mediation/negotiation model that can be used to help you move more efficiently and effectively through all the decisions that need to be made in your divorce. By following her roadmap, you can avoid the pitfalls. "This practical step-by-step process will save you time, energy and money. Most of all it will provide you a clear path for a hopeful future." Les Hewitt, co- author of the international bestseller, The Power of Focus "If you are remotely contemplating divorce, then you must read this life- changing book" Dr. John Demartini, "The Secret" and best-selling author...

Claiming His Wife-Golden Angel 2017-06-02 This is the fourth and final book in the Domestic Discipline Quartet. Alex has made a lot of mistakes, but he is determined to reconcile with his estranged wife, Grace. He's willing to put their past problems where he thinks they belong - in the past - but insults and disrespect will be met with discipline. He's seen the marriages his friends have, and decided to take a page from their books. Unfortunately for him, Grace is not so willing to let go of past hurts, although she has no choice but to go with him when he basically kidnaps her and takes her to Bath. At least her friends are there for moral support, while she does her best to discover exactly why her husband is so intent on reconciliation rather than divorce. Hugh and Irene are blissfully happy, having declared their love for each other, but they seem to be the only ones. Eleanor is pregnant and worried that her condition will mean the end of overt affection and desire from her husband - especially as he hasn't declared any kind of finer feelings for her. She thinks Edwin doesn't realize she's with child, and worries over how to prod a declaration from him. Meanwhile, everyone is gathered in Bath for Wesley's wedding to the brazen and rebellious Cynthia. When these four women get together, it's no wonder that both trouble and bright red bottoms loom on the horizon. Each of their husbands is bound and determined to claim and tame his willful wife. This book contains adult situations, including spankings, whippings, backdoor play, and explicit scenes. Rated sizzling!

What?! I Already Surrendered. Now, You Want My Mind Too!-Susan Smith 2018-06-07 Philippians 2:5 (KJV) Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. What does this mean? How do we live this? Come with Susan Smith on the journey God took her on to teach her what true surrender means. She thought she had surrendered until God started dealing with her about her mind. Nobody likes giving control up. We must if we are to align with Jesus Christ. Our mind must become nonexistent to become His mind. Our desires should be His desires. We must align with the Bible. When we give God complete control especially of our mind we will live in a place of such peace and freedom we will wonder why it took so long to do this. The process to do this is difficult because of what our society has taught us about taking care of ourselves first. It must be! It has to be God first! Take a walk on the wild side looking at your mind through God's eyes. It will be revolutionary!

Repertorium-Thomas Browne 2018-04-17 The 18th century was a wealth of knowledge, exploration and rapidly growing technology and expanding record-keeping made possible by advances in the printing press. In its determination to preserve the century of revolution, Gale initiated a revolution of its own: digitization of epic proportions to preserve these invaluable works in the largest archive of its kind. Now for the first time these high-quality digital copies of original 18th century manuscripts are available in print, making them highly accessible to libraries, undergraduate students, and independent scholars. Rich in titles on English life and social history, this collection spans the world as it was known to eighteenth-century historians and explorers. Titles include a wealth of travel accounts and diaries, histories of nations from throughout the world, and maps and charts of a world that was still being discovered. Students of the War of American Independence will find fascinating accounts from the British side of conflict. ++++ The below data was compiled from various identification fields in the bibliographic record of this title. This data is provided as an additional tool in helping to insure edition identification: ++++ British Library T083783 With two final leaves of index. In: 'Posthumous works of the learned Sir Thomas Browne, ..' London, 1712 and 1723. London: printed in the year, 1712. [2],74, [4]p., plates: port.; 8° Chihuly-Dale Chihuly 1999 The Taos Pueblo Exhibition is the beginning of an exploration of the wonders of glass art. We began this trail of beauty with a guide, Dale Chihuly, who made this art his life, say the leaders of the Taos Pueblo. Dale Chihuly made his first trip to the Southwest in 1974. A year later, he was deeply affected by a museum collection of Navajo Blankets and began to experiment with simple, cylindrical forms, which became the Navajo Blanket Cylinders. Boasting ingeniously applied patterns of colourful glass threads, the series became an important milestone from which his art evolved. The most obvious influence of this early series is visible in the Soft Cylinders, more irregularly shaped and elaborately decorated than their predecessors. In another opportune encounter, Chihuly happened upon a pile of old Northwest Coast Indian hand-woven baskets that inspired him toward one of his most recognisable and innovative glass series, the Baskets. Thin-walled and nested inside each other, the Basket series exemplifies Chihuly's signature organic, free-form style. This vellum-covered book tells the visual story of Chihuly's Native American influences, coming full circle with the Taos Pueblo Exhibition. Includes the inspiring essay, 'Dale Chihuly and the Indian Connection' by Lloyd Kiva New, President of the Institute of American Indian Arts. Nec-natama-J. Wilson Shiels 1914
